SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

EPISCOPAL.

The Ladies' Industrial Society, connected with the Mission Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, have erected a mission chapel for Germans, in a desolate part of Manhattan Island, viz., Ninth avenue, between Eighty-second and Eighty-third streets. The chapel was opened on the 15th inst. It is a neat Gothic structure, and cost $3000.

The Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol has decided that lay preaching cannot be allowed in the Established Church of England. He forbade a Mr. T. Croome to fill an appointment of that kind. The Bishop is Dr. C. J. Elliott, the well-known commentator.

The Gospel Messenger, now in the forty-fourth year of its publication at Utica, is about to be removed to Geneva, N. Y. The paper will hereafter be controlled by Bishop Croome. It is stated that the late editor, Rev. Dr. W. T. Gibson, proposes to publish a new paper of the same form and size, to be entitled the Church Messenger.

The Rev. W. W. Robertson has been assisting the Rev. W. Trumble in a protracted meeting in Concord Church, Missouri, of which Mr. Trumble is pastor. Twenty-one persons were admitted to the church on profession of faith.

The Rev. A. Z. Young, late of Amite county, Miss., has removed to Louisville, Ky., and is assisting the Rev. Dr. Robinson, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. W. A. Harrison, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Henderson, Ky., has been elected, by unanimous vote, to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church (South) in Harrodsburg, Ky.

The Presbyterian Church at Farmville, Va., made vacant by the removal of the Rev. R. McIlwaine to Lynchburg, has given a call to the Rev. A. C. Hopkins, of Charlottesville, West Virginia.

The new Presbyterian Church in Baltimore, erected by Mrs. Brown, as a memorial for her husband, George Brown, was dedicated on the 4th inst. It is an elegant structure, located at Park avenue and Second street, and cost, with the new furniture, $10,000.

A Presbyterian Church was dedicated at Corinne, Utah, on the 20th ult.

Dr. Daggett, of New Haven, Conn., has been supplying the pulpit of the Centre Church at Hartford. He now has a unanimous call to the church in New Haven, of which the Rev. G. B. Wilcox was pastor.

We see it stated that the friends of Dr. J. P. Thompson are for using his name as President of Yale, and that the plan is to secure Mr. Murray, of Boston, Mass., as his successor in it.

A new Congregational Society has been organized in New Haven, known as the " Dwight Place Society." The sum of $50,000 has been raised, and plans are on foot for a fine church edifice on the corner of Chapel and Dwight streets.

Rev. Joseph Ward became pastor, two years ago, of the only Congregational Church in Dakota. Since then he has organized four others.

Since the enlargement and remodeling of the church of the Pilgrims, Brooklyn (Dr. R. S. Stokes, Jr., pastor), it is said to be one of the most beautiful in the city. The cost of repairs, etc., has been $135,000, and the valuation of the entire church property is now $260,000.

The total income of Yale College last year was $192,850, while the expenditures were $163,800.

The Theological Department of Yale College has a reference library in the new hall, which was opened November 21, consisting of a collection of the books which a student most needs, and which are taken from the shelves and placed at the disposal of the student.

The Congregationalists, who were in such a minority of the denomination in Massachusetts when the Unitarian split occurred, now have three times as many churches in that State as the Unitarians.

The Congregationalists of the Pacific slope propose to have a celebration to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the Landing of the Pilgrims, to be held on December 21, in San Francisco.

James Heald, one of the treasurers of the Wesleyan Missionary Society, has given $5000 to meet the claims of the society. Miss Heald also gave $2500.

The third annual convention of the Methodist missionaries in Sweden was held at Carlscrona, July 20th. Their statistics are:—Circulars, 18; organizations, 26; stations, 55; local preachers, 16; members, 1839; Sunday-schools, 23; teachers, 153; scholars, 1278.

The Methodist Book Concern in Cincinnati narrowly escaped destruction by fire on the 9th inst. It was damaged to the amount of $25,000, which is covered by insurance.

Dr. Albert T. Bledsoe, editor of the Southern Quarterly Review, and who was, many years ago, a minister of the Episcopal Church, has been admitted into the Methodist Church.

There is one Methodist in Massachusetts to every thirty-eight inhabitants. In 1850 there was one for every forty-three inhabitants—a fair increase for the twenty years.

The Rev. Dr. Welch died on the 8th inst., aged seventy-six years. He had been nearly fifty years in the ministry, and for thirty years a Baptist preacher in Albany, N. Y.

LUTHERAN.

The Swedish Foreign Missionary Society is collecting funds for the building of a ship to visit their missions. About $6000 have already been raised towards the object.

CATHOLIC.

Rev. E. V. Rowan, who was transferred from St. Mary's, Phoenixville, to St. James' West Philadelphia.

Rev. James F. Magin has been transferred from St. James', Philadelphia, to St. Mary's, Phoenixville.

Rev. Daniel O'Connor has been transferred from the Cathedral to St. Patrick's.

Rev. Dr. Garvey has been appointed to St. John's, Manayunk.

On Wednesday morning, December 23, an adventurous man for the repose of the soul of the late Rev. John P. Dano will be celebrated in St. John's Church, at half-past nine o'clock. The reverend clergy are respectfully invited to be present, without further notice.

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.—Mrs. Mary Lee, who had her neck broken at the falling of No. 35 Deal street, Frankford, on the 23d inst., by a fall, was not the wife of James Lee, as reported. She was a widow.

Officer Eastburn, wounded on Tuesday evening last at the polls at Twelfth and Brinton streets, is recovering. The pistol ball has not yet been extracted from his leg.

The counsel for John Hanlon has prepared a bill of exceptions to carry the case to the Supreme Court. The writ of error, under the recent act of Assembly, is made one of right, and it has not yet been formally lodged in the Supreme Court, although sealed in the Oyer and Terminer.

EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPACHES.

THE FRANCO-PRUSSIAN WAR.—THE SIEGE OF PARIS.—THE EASTERN QUESTION.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—A Prussian claim has been observed approaching Poulzouac, an Rhaling, supposed to be on the march for Loon, La Fere and Chateau, to attack the French army of the north. The weather to-day is cloudy.

The capture of the city was seen, but imperfectly in the south of England, but was well observed northward, particularly at Wick.

The French claim to have severed Frederick Chose's communications, and captured 2000 prisoners as the Germans were leaving Tours. They also report that the army of the Loire has made a successful union, and is now 300,000 strong and ready for the offensive.

The Times to-day again editorially discusses the question of the Alabama claim. It says the American Government has not yet approved of the value of peace, because their exposed points are few and their resources unbounded. While they do not seek war, they are not likely to do so, because England is always averse to war for converse reasons.

BRISTOL, Dec. 23.—A dispatch from Tours, bearing the news of the 22d, and signed by the Mayor, informs the Department of the Interior that no more Prussians have entered the department of Indre et Loire, and those who were there have proceeded toward Blois without entering Tours.

A telegram from Lyons, the 23d, says the entire population of the city of 224, and signed by the Mayor, informs the Department of the Interior that the funeral was attended by all classes of the people.

Gambetta was received at Lyons with the warmest acclamations, and the universal request that the fullest measure of justice be accorded to the wretched and helpless victims of the late operations. Several persons have been arrested for complicity in the assassination of Foue.

Advices from Paris to the night of the 21st bring the news of the recent military operations. The report says operations were resumed to-day and only ceased at nightfall. On the right Generals Malre and Blaise occupied Sensilly, St. Marne, and the village of Blanc, and on the left the city of Paris. The fire of the enemy was silenced at all points.

It was also stated that after a short combat, in which General Fave was wounded, troops from St. Denis, under Admiral La Rouchere, carried Bouget, to the north of Paris, but were unable to hold it for Philadelphia, has on board 67 bales cotton.

Schrs. Saxons, Lamson, hence for Boston; Hawthatha, Lee, do. for Portsmouth; Ada, Belyea, do. for St. John, N. B.; and George P. Trigg, Linnekin, from Newcastle, Del., for Danvers, at Holmes' Hole A. M. 23d inst.

Schrs. Lena Hunter, Perry, hence for Newburyport, and George Neveger, Young, do. for Lynn, at Holmes' Hole A. M. 23d inst.

Schrs. R. E. Reynolds, Trippe, from Delaware; Cora, Low, and Nellie Ann, Marshall, from Egg Harbor, at New York 23d inst.

Schrs. Charles E. Smith, Manser; Wm. F. Phelps, Crammer; Trans, 21st inst. Sailed, schrs. A. H. Small, hence, at Providence 21st inst.—the latter for Pawtucket.

Schrs. J. Johnson, sailed from Providence 21st inst. for Trenton.

Schrs. W. P. Pharo, Eaton, at New York 23d inst. Sailed, schrs. Wm. Townsend, sailed from Providence 21st inst. for Bristol, to load for Philadelphia.

A dispatch from Versailles states that on Tuesday the fire from the fortifications of Paris was very hot and ineffective. During the cannonade a sortie was made by the French against the Prussian guard and 12th corps of Saxons. The fighting lasted several hours, but the Prussians were victorious.

A body of Mobiles has been defeated by the Havreans, under General de Voigts-Rhetz, beyond Monnaie, eight miles north of Tours.

HARRISBURG.

The "Credit Mobilier" Case.—Verdict in Favor of the Commonwealth.

HARRISBURG, Dec. 23.—The jury in the "Credit Mobilier" case have returned a verdict for the Commonwealth that the "Credit Mobilier" pay into the State Treasury for taxes six hundred and thirty-eight thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight dollars and ninety cents, and that the sum of one hundred thousand dollars claimed by the defendants depended upon the action of the jury in this case, and it is therefore anticipated that the result of this trial will ultimately be in favor of the Commonwealth, on account of the "Credit Mobilier," over one million dollars. Great satisfaction is expressed here at this verdict, as well on account of the revenue it puts into the State Treasury, and the vigor with which the law governing corporations has been enforced. It is conceded by all who heard the trial throughout that L. W. Hall, Esq., and Attorney General Brewster acquitted them selves with marked ability, and that to their combined efforts the State is indebted for securing this highly important result.

CABINET CHANGES.

The Washington Republican of yesterday has the following, which is about all that can be said upon the subject:—"Rumors are again rife that Secretary Boutwell is so far complicated in the San Domingo matter by his friendship for Mr. Sumner, that he will be compelled to leave the Cabinet. It is certain that Mr. Sumner was so anxious to consult with him, that he sought his presence yesterday morning before office hours, and notwithstanding the fact that he must have left in consequence of the all-night session, remained closeted with him for more than an hour. Subsequently, Mr. Sumner having left the Secretary, the latter addressed a note to the President, the purport of which is not known, but it was answered promptly, and it was followed by others, and finally by a visit by the Secretary to the President in person."

These are all the facts yet made public, but in the present excited condition of affairs here they are more than sufficient to form the basis of a foundation of rumors, some of which have been exaggerated into positive assertions that Mr. Boutwell has resigned, and that the President has accepted his resignation. However, the most reliable information to be obtained, up to late hour last night, indicates no change in the Cabinet until after the 25th inst., and it is not certain that any will be made then.
